

Yale School of Management

The Yale School of Management has introduced to its MBA for Executives: Leadership in Healthcare Program, beginning with the Class of 2012, an integrated curriculum similar to the full-time MBA program. The number of required credits or classroom hours has not changed as a result of the new integrated curriculum.