In Fall 2021, the ten most popular majors among Juniors and Seniors were: Economics (11%), Political Science (7%), History (6%), Computer Science (6%), Psychology (4%), Molecular, Cellular & Developmental Biology (4%), Global Affairs (4%), English (3%), Statistics and Data Science (3%) and Cognitive Science (2%)

Athletics:
Of the 21 collegiate sports offered at Yale, 16 are for men, 18 are for women, and two are coed: rowing (w), lightweight heavyweight crew (co-ed), cross country (m/w), field hockey (w), football (m), golf (m/w), tennis (m/w), volleyball (w), basketball (w), fencing (m/w), gymnastics (w), ice hockey (m/w), squash (m/w), swimming & diving (m/w), track/field (m/w), track/outdoor (m/w), baseball (m), lacrosse (m/w), sailing (co-ed) and softball (w). Yale is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (Division I, FCS Football), the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC), and the Ivy League.

Yale's intramural sports program involves all of its 14 residential colleges, which compete against each other in over 20 sports spread across separate fall, winter, and spring seasons. Competition is primarily coed, and nearly 50% of students participate in intramural sports at some point. In addition to traditional sports such as basketball, volleyball, golf and soccer, the program's unique offerings include inner-tube water polo, bowling, dodgeball, broomball, pickleball and spikeball—something for everybody. For more information: intramurals.yale.edu

In addition to its varsity and intramural programs, Yale sponsors approximately 50 diverse and highly-competitive club sports teams, which compete against other colleges and universities. Some of Yale's active, unique and popular clubs include rugby, water polo, downhill skiing, Tar Kwon Do, badminton, ballroom dance, soccer, fishing, skeet, trap shooting, air pistol, Ultimate Frisbee, archery, volleyball, lacrosse, equestrian and cycling. Yale has won national club sport championships in croquet, cycling, fishing, polo pony, rugby, sailing, skeet shooting, volleyball, basketball and wrestling. For more information: sportandinrecreation.yale.edu/campus-sports-club-sports

Graduate and Professional Intercollegiate Sports are open to Yale students, faculty, alumni, spouses and staff. Sport offerings include volleyball, soccer, softball, basketball and ultimate frisbee. The academic year has four seasons of play — summer, fall, winter, and spring. Softball is offered in the fall, spring and summer seasons. Volleyball is offered in the fall, winter and spring seasons. Soccer is offered in the fall and spring. Basketball is offered in the winter season only. Ultimate frisbee is offered in the spring season only. Indoor courts are held in Yale's Payne Whitney Gymnasium and outdoor courts are held at the Intramural Fields on Central Avenue. All games are played on weekends during the academic year and on weekday evenings during the summer. Most sports consist of competitive, recreational, and co-recational leagues.
